

This guide is meant for graduate research students enrolled in course ERI701 from Jan 2019. Students are to seek the advice of School representatives or consult with supervisors so as to confirm the relevant track that is to be completed.

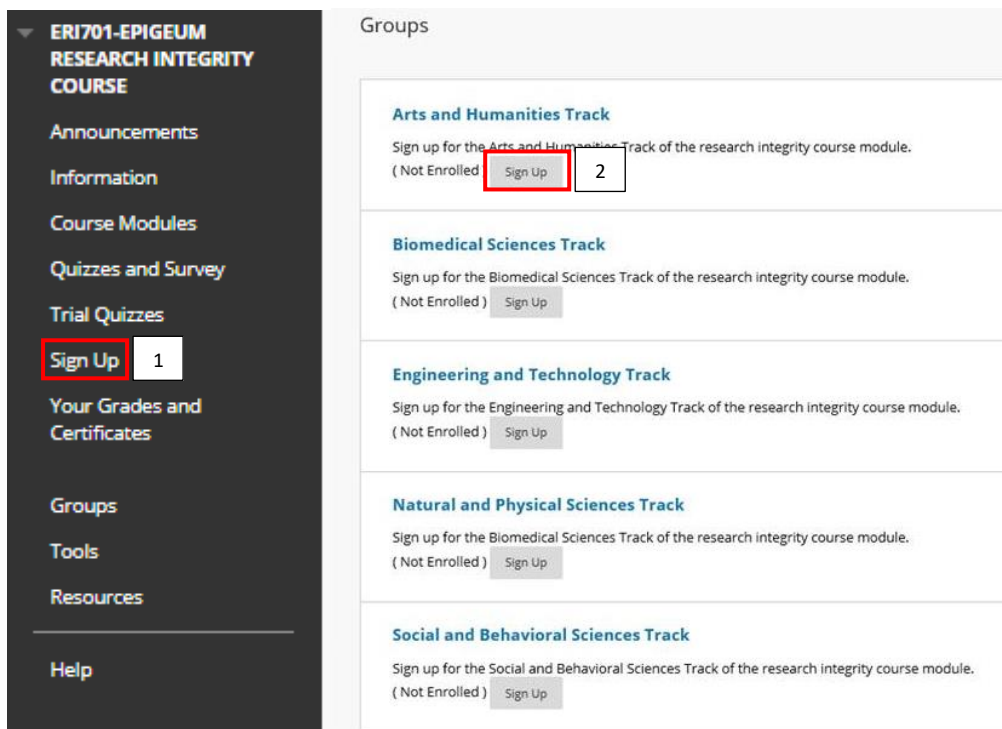

1) Access ERI701 via NTULearn. This is reflected under NTULearn / Courses.

2) Upon clicking on the course link above, the course site shown below loads:

3) Click on “Sign Up” found on the left navigation panel and the page with 5 courses list loads. Click on “Sign Up” under the relevant track, e.g. Arts and Humanities Track.

4) You will be redirected to the Sign Up sheet. Click Sign Up.

The screenshot shows a web interface with a dark sidebar on the left containing navigation options: Announcements, Information, Course Modules, Quizzes and Survey, Trial Quizzes, Sign Up, Your Grades and Certificates, Groups, Tools, Resources, and Help. The main content area is titled "Sign Up Sheet" and contains the following text: "SignUp Sheet Name: Biomedical Sciences Sign-up Form", "SignUp Sheet Instructions: Sign up for the Biomedical Sciences Track of the research integrity course module.", and "Biomedical Sciences Track". Below this, there is a sub-section titled "Sign up for the Biomedical Sciences Track of the research integrity course module." with a "Sign Up" button highlighted by a red box.

5) Page on Group Properties loads:

6) Click on Course Modules located on the left navigation panel. The track(s) you have registered for is(are) listed on the Course Modules page. Click on track to commence review of track content.

The screenshot shows a web interface with a dark sidebar on the left containing navigation options: Announcements, Information, Course Modules, Quizzes and Survey, Trial Quizzes, Sign Up, Your Grades and Certificates, Groups, Tools, Resources, and Help. The main content area is titled "Course Modules" and contains the following text: "Availability of the Research Integrity Course Modules", "You MUST Sign Up for the Research Integrity Course Modules before the link(s) to the course module(s) is/are made available to you in this content area.", "Please refer to the Information page to learn more about the subject areas, overview and syllabus for each track version of the course module to determine which track version best suit your needs.", and "Arts and Humanities Track". The "Arts and Humanities Track" link is highlighted by a red box. A red box with the number "1" highlights the "Course Modules" link in the sidebar, and a red box with the number "2" highlights the "Arts and Humanities Track" link in the main content area.

Quizzes and Survey for Students

This folder contains the module and course quizzes, and a course evaluation survey to be completed by the participants.
